RE: FOIA Request to U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) for Records Regarding Border-Related Human Trafficking and Exploitation of Women and Children, the Cancellation or Postponement of Operation Talon, and Taking Down CBP's Press Release on Arrest of Persons on the FBI's Terrorism Watch List

Dear Ms. Parker Dupree:

This letter is a request ("Request") in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. § 552 et seq., and the corresponding department/agency implementing regulations.

The Request is made by the American Center for Law and Justice ("ACLJ")<sup>1</sup> on behalf of itself and over 88,000 of its members.

Background

Pursuant to DHS FOIA regulation 6 C.F.R. §5.3(b), this Background addresses "the date, title or name, author, recipient, and subject matter of the record[s]" requested, to the extent known.

Records discussing and showing what actions are being taken to protect unaccompanied minors and women from trafficking and/or exploitation

According to the State Department:

In the United States, individuals vulnerable to human trafficking include .... unaccompanied foreign national children without lawful immigration status; individuals seeking asylum; .... migrant laborers, including undocumented workers and participants in visa programs for temporary workers; foreign national domestic workers in diplomatic households; persons with limited English proficiency . . . .

Human trafficking occurs when a trafficker uses force, fraud, or coercion to compel another person to work or engage in a commercial sex act, and does not require crossing a border. By contrast, migrant smugglers engage in the crime of bringing people across international borders through deliberate evasion of immigration laws. While these are distinct crimes, individuals who are smuggled may become vulnerable to and victims of human trafficking.<sup>2</sup>

It has been reported that:

Criminal cartels that are trafficking families, women, children and single adults over the southern border earned as much as $14 million a day in February, according to a report on Monday.

“Trafficking is a multibillion-dollar industry,” former Tucson Border Patrol Chief Roy Villareal, who retired in December after 30 years with the agency told Fox News.

“A lot of these vulnerable populations use their life savings. Some are essentially indentured servants and they’re working off this debt for a long period of time. In other cases, some of these migrants are asked to transport narcotics or some form of crime to work off a different part of their debt,” he said.<sup>3</sup>

There are reports of many teenage boys being bused into Dallas by the Administration.<sup>4</sup> The Mexican press is reporting girls as young as seven attempting to cross alone.<sup>5</sup>

For Fiscal year 2020:

ICE agents arrested more than 143,000 people in the interior. The most convictions or criminal charges pending against them were for driving under the influence (74,000), followed by drug offenses (67,000). Only 1,900 had been charged or convicted of homicide.

Convictions or criminal charges of the aliens arrested also included 1,800 homicide-related crimes, 1,600 kidnappings, 37,000 assaults, and 10,000 sex crimes, according to ICE data. Further, ICE announced that in FY 2020 they had successfully deported 185,884 immigrants. Of those, 4,276 were known or suspected gang members, 675 of whom are believed to be members of the brutal gang MS-13. It was also reported that 31 were known or suspected terrorists.<sup>6</sup>

Despite the statistics above, migrants are being released from custody without a court date, and the number is growing.<sup>7</sup> Furthermore:

US border authorities have posted online a terrifying gallery of illegal immigrants they recently busted crossing in from Mexico — including suspected pedophiles, rapists and murderers.

The parade of at least 10 hardened criminals comes amid a southern border crisis that has been blamed on the Biden administration's eased policies.<sup>8</sup>

Rep. John Katko (R-N.Y.), who serves on the Homeland Security Committee, stated that “[p]eople they've caught in the last few days over there in sector three or monument three have been on the terror watch list. Individuals that they have on the watch list for terrorism are now starting to exploit the southern border.”<sup>9</sup>

In January 2021, unaccompanied minors increased to 5,700 from 4,855 in December.<sup>10</sup> These numbers are increasing. “More than 16,000 migrant children are currently in U.S. custody, with 5,000 of those in the hands of Border Patrol, which is encountering about 530 unaccompanied minors every day.”<sup>11</sup>

Records Regarding Cancellation or Postponement of Operation Talon

According to a report, “Biden’s administration recently cancelled Operation Talon, a Trump administration program aimed at removing convicted sex offenders living in the United States illegally.”<sup>12</sup> According to Reuters, “The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) told Reuters the operation was not canceled but postponed, and the logistical decision to do so was made by ICE operators, not the president.”<sup>13</sup>

Records about CBP removing a press release about the arrest of two illegal aliens on the FBI’s Terrorism Watch List and No-Fly List

According to a recent report by the Federalist:

U.S. Customs and Border Protection will not answer why a press release outlining the arrest of two Yemeni illegal aliens who appeared on both the FBI’s Terrorism Watch List and No-Fly List was removed from its website on Tuesday.

In the now-archived announcement, CBP explained that agents apprehended two men near Calexico, California, between the end of January and the end of March, a period during which illegal border crossings soared to record-setting numbers. The announcement detailing both incidents, including the discovery of a cellular phone sim card in one of the migrant’s shoes, however, was quietly exchanged, without explanation, with a link to a page denying access to members of the public on Tuesday. Searches for the original release on the CBP website also did not yield any recent results.<sup>14</sup>

In March, CBP told Newsweek that,

[e]ncounters with terrorists at U.S. borders are “very uncommon,” according to a statement released Wednesday from U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP).

“Our border security efforts are layered and include multiple levels of rigorous screening that allow us to detect and prevent people who pose national security or

Indeed, when the ACLJ attempts to access the CBP press release at <https://www.cbp.gov/newsroom/local-media-release/two-yemeni-men-arrested-border-patrol-identified-fbi-s-terrorism-0>, the message “Access Denied” appears.

Cir. 2016) (rejecting agency argument that emails on private email account were not under agency control, and holding, “If a department head can deprive the citizens of their right to know what his department is up to by the simple expedient of maintaining his departmental emails on an account in another domain, that purpose is hardly served.”).
